QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

1. Read Genesis 16:1 - 3. Whose voice does Abram listen to in this passage? Does this lead him into deeper dependence on God or greater self-reliance? How should Abram and Sarai have responded to their circumstance?

2. What are some ways that we are tempted to follow cultural norms today instead of following God?

3. Hagar may have been heading to her homeland, Egypt, when she fled. In times of stress and/or fear, how do you respond?

4. Read Genesis 16:7 - 13. What do we learn about God from his interaction with Hagar? How does Hagar demonstrate trust in God?

5. Hagar named God, the God who sees me. What does it mean to you personally that God sees you?

6. How has God met you in a time of need? How did you respond? Give specific examples.

7. How does the truth that God sees you and knows everything about you make you feel?
